

services, the withholding of the necessities of life, such as medication,

